3. The following screen will appear. Click I accept after reading the USG-Authorized use only block.
- 4.

You are accessing a U.S. Government (USG) Information System (IS) that is provided for USG-authorized use only. By using this IS (which includes any device attached to this IS), you consent to the following conditions: -The USG routinely intercepts and monitors communications on this IS for purposes including, but not limited to, penetration testing, COMSEC monitoring, network operations and defense, personnel misconduct (PM), law enforcement (LE), and counterintelligence (CI) investigations. -At any time, the USG may inspect and seize data stored on this IS. -Communications using, or data stored on, this IS are not private, are subject to routine monitoring, interception, and search, and may be disclosed or used for any USG-authorized purpose. -This IS includes security measures (e.g., authentication and access controls) to protect USG interests--not for your personal benefit or privacy. -Notwithstanding the above, using this IS does not constitute consent to PM, LE or CI investigative searching or monitoring of the content of privileged communications, or work product, related to personal representation or services by attorneys, psychotherapists, or clergy, and their assistants. Such communications and work product are private and confidential. See User Agreement for details. Use of this application may provide access to highly confidential information, including but not limited to personally identifiable information ("PII"), protected health information ("PHI"), and criminal records. This information is subject to protection under the law, including the Privacy Act (as amended), the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (as amended), and other laws governing access to and use of confidential data. Use of this tool constitutes acknowledgement that the user has been authorized to access this highly confidential information and will only use the information in accordance with applicable laws.
