RELEASE DATE: OCTOBER 6, 2023

DATA UPDATES:

- AMCOS fixed an issue related to the United States Army Human Resources Command's Selective Retention Bonus (SRB) Program data. Cost elements that were missing for 91Cs and several Military Occupational Specialties (MOS)/Job Codes have been restored.

RELEASE DATE: SEPTEMBER 19, 2023

DATA UPDATES:

- AMCOS updated the conversion rules based on G1 data which states only E9 17C Enlisted converts to 17Z, not all 17Cs. The result of this are costs now being returned for 17Cs and minor changes to all Enlisted costs as a result of the Cross Grade Level averaging calculating. This change also impacts inventory where previously tagged 17Z data is now showing as 17C.
- BLS (CCE) data was updated to correct an inflation rule that was not being globally applied. The result of which are cost changes throughout the CCE data set.

RELEASE DATE: MAY 17, 2023

AMCOS upgraded Project Manager by adding the Add Unit feature. Users may now add an entire unit's worth of personnel with ease to their projects. Users may choose all or specific pay plans from the unit as well as set several other options. TDA structure comes from the FMS monthly file while MTOE data comes from the SACS file. Both sources of which are from FMSWeb. Please see the Project Manager tutorial for more information.

*Due to issues in WASS the latest available data was August 2021. AMCOS estimated the following inflation rates for pay plans that use that data source: SES 2.7%; Wage 2.9%

Other Data

- The President Budget (PB) - AMCOS used PB22LOCK
- FY 2022 Military conversions and valid MOS/AOC/WOMOS from the Personnel Authorization Module (PAM)
- PB22 Joint Inflation Calculator (JIC)
- Training (FY 20 ATRM 159 & ATRRS) – Note that TRADOC inflates FY20 ATRM-159 costs to current year
- OPM 2022 Occupational Group and Series data – no changes since 2018 to the OPM handbook
- OMB 2022 Circular A-94 Discount Rate Data was not available, so it remains with 2021 values
- 2020 O&M Defense Wide and Federal Retired pay costs based on the FCoM logic (actual FCoM values not available at release) – we re-used this data for this release since FCoM data and PB DoD wide documents were not available as of the AMCOS release date
- Cash award, benefits, FICA, Holiday, Overtime and other ratio data from DASA-CE
- March 2022 Employer Costs for Employee Compensation (ECEC) data from BLS
- ZIPs to FIPS crosswalk data for OPM locality areas
- Financial Management Regulation changes (none of note this release)
- IRS FICA updates for 2022
- Defense Travel Management Office (DTMO) for 2022
- FMS Web UIC data
- Latest HRC MILPERS

Model Changes

Based on data analysis conducted on the 2022 AMCOS release data we made the following adjustments to the model to improve the accuracy of the data. Please see the AMCOS Cost Model documentation for complete details on the calculation of specific cost elements.

- The source of Federal Employee Government Health Insurance (FEGHI) was simplified from to using annualized OPM biweekly government contributions for Self Plus One.
- The GFEBs averaging technique was changed to reduce the impact of infrequent but large costs from unduly influencing averages (e.g. hazardous duty pay)

- AD inventory with only 6100.11B3 (Base Pay Non Premium) records were allowed, thus increasing that figure when compared to the prior year.
- The Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH) calculation was changed from using DMDC pay / inventory to the average payment amount. This change was made to account for DMDC pay errors we were seeing and does significantly impact averages for specific grade levels.

RELEASE DATE: JANUARY 28, 2021

WEBSITE CHANGES:

The inventory data page was updated to use Qlik data visualizations. The data export feature is still available via the tabs at the top.

RELEASE DATE: DECEMBER 14, 2021

WEBSITE CHANGES:

Based on OSD CAPE's 2020 Operating and Support Cost Estimating Guide published in Sep 2020, Army CES 5.06 or DoD CES 6.0 is no longer necessary for acquisition life cycle cost estimates but remains necessary for other estimates. AMCOS added a note to the weapon system summary in AMCOS Lite to indicate this. As part of this adjustment AMCOS also realigned PCS MPA Non-Pay elements from 5.06 to 5.01 in the Army CES.

RELEASE DATE: NOVEMBER 17, 2021

WEBSITE CHANGES:

AMCOS upgraded the Pay Schedule page to use data visualization through Qlik. This upgrade also includes limited historical data which will be expanded with future website updates.

RELEASE DATE: OCTOBER 19, 2021

WEBSITE CHANGES:

An adjustment was made to the SES costs to correct: 1) missing occupation series (subgroups) below the 1000 level and 2) incorporation of the missing FICA cost element to the CONUS costs.

RELEASE DATE: AUGUST 10, 2021

WEBSITE CHANGES:

An adjustment was made to the Pay Plan Xwalk module to correct a scenario in which costs for the GS pay plan were not displayed. Some GS occupational series contain costs only in overseas locations. Prior to this release, overseas locations were not included in the location dropdown list. The addition of overseas locations to the locality pay areas allows all relevant GS costs to be selected and displayed as set by the location filter.

RELEASE DATE: AUGUST 5, 2021

DATA CHANGES:

HQDA G1 clarified that Enlisted 15L replaced 15Y only at the E7 level versus replacing all 15Y. AMCOS recomputed the model based on this which impacts Enlisted costs for: 15L, 15Y, all other 15s, 00Z (parent to 15Z which is the parent to 15L), and the Enlisted Pay Plan averages (no group or subgroup selection). Note that 15Ls below E7 exist for NE/RE due to that data existing from DMDC. At this time AMCOS is not aware of any 15Y to 15L below E7 conversion guidance so that data remains as reported from DMDC.

RELEASE DATE: JUNE 25, 2021

WEBSITE CHANGES:

AMCOS added the Permanent Change of Station (PCS) module to the Applications menu. This module allows for the quick, and customizable, estimation of the cost to PCS a civilian from one location to another. It also allows for the saving, opening, deleting, and exporting of projects similar to the Project Manager application.

RELEASE DATE: MAY 21, 2021

WEBSITE CHANGES:

AMCOS now shows the Administratively Determined (AD) and Non-Appropriated Fund Pay Band (NF) Pay Plans subject to the stipulations below:

- AMCOS is not in possession of any overarching AD pay schedule so one is not available in the site and the cost calculations shown come from GFEBS data
- The NF pay plan generalizes Pay Band schedules in the case of A and B schedules, returning the higher of the two. Also, AMCOS computes the average pay as the middle of each pay band since we do not currently have actual pay data.

RELEASE DATE: MAY 3, 2021

WEBSITE CHANGES:

Enhancements this release:

- The CY (Child and Youth Programs Assistants) pay plan was added to AMCOS. Because CY is a pay banding pay schedule, and we do not receive inventory/pay detail inside the bands, AMCOS assumes base pay in the middle of the pay band

WEBSITE CHANGES:

Adjustments made to the Pay Schedule Data Page to correct an issue when filtering on D/N series data. In addition, we deployed changes to the computation of Firefighters based on Defense Civilian Personnel Advisory Service (DCPAS) computation guidance. This change affects slightly the overall G series average computations and the min/max base pay line on the AMCOS Lite Graph Results. Note that pay in certain firefighter scenarios in the graph results of AMCOS Lite will be outside the min/max pay bounds displayed. This is because those lines are calculated based on the General Schedule, and do not currently include the intricacies of Firefighter pay. The AMCOS team is looking into a resolution to provide better visual context to these new scenarios and will deploy that during a future update.

RELEASE DATE: JANUARY 20, 2021

WEBSITE CHANGES:

Corrections made to Pay Plan Xwalk and Wage Plan data we get from WASS. These corrections were necessary follow-up actions to the Overseas feature added late last year.

RELEASE DATE: OCTOBER 19, 2020

WEBSITE CHANGES:

New Feature: Overseas Civilian Costing, which encompasses the following adjustments:

- GS/GG/SES/WG/WL/WS pay plans now show overseas locations based on Department of State (DoS) data
- Overseas locations may have (dependent on DoS allowances) the following additional Cost Elements:
  - Avg Cost of Post (Cost of Living) Allowance
  - Avg Cost of Post (Hardship) Differential
  - Avg Cost of Living Quarters Allowance (LQA)
  - Avg Cost of Danger Pay Allowance
  - Discount Groceries
- A new Number of Dependents drop down is available when selecting an overseas location which impacts the LQA cost

Change in AMCOS cost methodology: The prior release of AMCOS generated costs for all locations, group, and subgroup possibilities for GS, GL, and GG regardless of inventory (fill-in-the-blanks). This resulted in a large increase in the number of records. The increase in records enabled convenience in the site but at the cost of duplicative data. With the introduction of Overseas, the fill-in-the-blank solution become exponentially larger which led us to change the methodology as follows: AMCOS returned to generating costs for only scenarios where there are inventory, but does generate all possible costs (fill-in-the-blank) at the All category level for all locations. Therefore, if you are looking to cost a specific position at a specific location at a specific grade level and AMCOS does not have that data, then simply back up to the All category option and you will find it there.

Change in Weapon System Manpower Summary: At the request of users, AMCOS added the APPN to the naming convention of the Army CES element so that the summary table provides a finer level of detail. A future improvement is planned to allow for users to customize the attributes included in the summary.

RELEASE DATE: JULY 21, 2020

NEW FEATURE:

Non-Foreign Cost of Living Allowance (COLA) (NFC) is now added to the site. After a discussion with the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), we received clarification as to how NFC works in Non-Foreign Areas (NFA) and thus updated the site to include these additional areas and compute NFC as applicable. Some Laboratory and Acquisition Demo pay plan costs were impacted as a result. This was due to data received from GFEBS with NFC costs despite the ZIP Code of the position not being in a Non-Foreign Area. AMCOS implemented controls to catch and remove such costs.

RELEASE DATE: MAY 29, 2020

- Location based costing
- Military locations impact the overseas costs (for OCONUS locations), and the Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH) / Cost of Living Allowance (COLA) costs (for CONUS locations). All other military costs are un-effected
- Dependent status
- BAH/COLA is impacted based on whether the user wants the average dependents by grade level, with, or without dependents
- Overseas costs are generated using the average dependent status
- Installation options – All pay plans now present the option of select a military location which ties back to the underlying location used by the pay plan. For example, the military installations shown in the Active Military pay plans have a primary zip code which is linked back to the Military Housing Area code that zip code equates to
- Wage Schedules – AMCOS now tracks wage plans at the Wage Schedule level which comes with a higher level of precision than the previous Wage Area
- City/County – For wage plans it may not always be clear which wage schedule applies to a specific location so users may select a county instead and the system will do the cross walk for them
- Laboratory Demo and Acquisition Demo Pay Plan changes
- Functional Area, Cost Center, and State options were replaced in favor of Locality Area
- Lab Demo plans now have a STRL drop down. The STRL option is necessary because different STRLs have different pay schedules.

- Career Programs – For most civilian plans this option is now available should users want average costs by the Career Program (CP) instead of a specific group or subgroup selection
- Special Pay Integration into GS/GL – When special pay applies additional selection boxes were required. This release eliminates the need for that and instead provides a pick list of special pay locations. In some cases there may also be special sub-subgroups designated by an additional letter at the end of the subgroup number.
- Wage Category subgroups – This release now displays average pay by specific subgroup codes for wage in addition to the location option available previously
- Wage premium and Overtime (OT) pay – These Cost Elements are now broken out to provide greater detail
- Historical data – Although not yet available in the user interface, this release makes database changes to support the future AMCOS design where historical costs will be available
- New Logo – update to the AMCOS logo
- Addition of Organizational Unit Move – This Cost Element (CE) is now available in AMCOS at the detailed summary level
- Permanent Change of Station (PCS) Costs – These costs were changed from a probability model to one based off the President's Budget. As a result, PCS detail costs were moved from the Ancillary summary to the detailed summary
- Fill in inventory blanks – Previous versions of AMCOS only provided civilian (GG/GS/GL) costs where there was inventory. Based on OPM guidance for valid grades by occupational type, AMCOS now generates costs even if inventory does not exist provided there is at least 1 in inventory for a subgroup. Step is assumed to be the average step for that grade level. Officer Acquisition (except accession/affiliation bonus)
- Update to the calculation methodology for training which causes numerous aviation specialties to increase in cost. This adjustment was made after careful consideration and comparison of aviation training costs to other specialties whereby aviation was not substantially greater than other non-aviation specialties. The new costs provide a better representation of the full cost of aviation training which is in many cases of much greater expense than non-aviation training.

WEBSITE CHANGES:

AMCOS upgraded the data visualization component of AMCOS lite found in the “Graph Results” tab. The new visualization adds inventory and base pay min/max to the chart, allowing users to see this information all in one place. The visualization also allows for chart components to be turned on/off as needed for easier viewing.

RELEASE DATE: AUGUST 14, 2019

WEBSITE CHANGES:

AMCOS published an update to the Ancillary Cost Summary. This update adjusts the Actual Cost Elements to aggregate instead of average at levels above the AOC/MOS/WOMOS level of detail.

RELEASE DATE: JULY 26, 2019

WEBSITE CHANGES:

AMCOS published a correction to the MPA/OMA/OMA1 inflation functionality for National Guard/Reserve pay plans in AMCOS Lite. Users may see changes in out years costs which were previously not inflated as they should be for the APPNs noted above.

RELEASE DATE: MAY 30, 2019

WEBSITE CHANGES:

AMCOS published an adjustment to the OSD CAPE CES for Recruiting based on updated guidance from the Army. Recruiting changed from 1.0 Unit Level Manpower to 6.2.1.2-Acquisition of New Personnel.

RELEASE DATE: MAY 13, 2019

WEBSITE CHANGES:

AMCOS published a correction to AO Foreign Language Pay (FLP) and Hazardous Duty Pay (HDP) cost elements. Due to a processing error, FLP and HDP were combined in FLP for AO records. This release corrects that by splitting HDP out of FLP.

RELEASE DATE: APRIL 29, 2019

WEBSITE CHANGES:

In order to improve consistency across the site, AMCOS adjusted several cost element names to conform to a standard naming convention.

In support of this release, several changes were made to AMCOS' cost model

- Weapon System Specific costs are now shown in AMCOS for the following weapon systems:
  - Abrams (M1/M1A)
  - ADAM
  - AFATDS
  - Apache (H-64)
  - Avenger (AN/TWQ-1)
  - Blackhawk (H-60)
  - Bradley
  - FUTURE USE
  - Chinook (H-47)
  - Creek (H-67)
  - Gray Eagle (MQ-1C)
  - HMMWV
  - Huron (C-12)
  - JBPDS (XM-96)
  - Kiowa (H-58)
  - Lakota (H-72)
  - MGS (M1128)
  - MLRS (M270)
  - NBC-RV
  - Paladin (M-109/M-992)
  - Patriot (MIM-104)
  - Shadow (RQ-7)
  - Stryker
  - TC AIMS
  - THAAD
  - TROJAN (AN/TSQ-226)
  - Hunter (RQ-5a)

- AMCOS replaced the amortization cost allocation model with two new models. Amortization was replaced due to its complexity, an increased risk in losing the data used to derive the man-years calculations, and because of enhanced data AMCOS now receives. AMCOS uses the following replacements for amortization:
- Pay Plan Allocation (PPA) – This model takes program level costs which are attributable to all individuals within a pay plan and allocates them at the same rate for every subgroup in that pay plan’s inventory. Cost element categories now using this approach are:
  - Officer Acquisition (except accession/affiliation bonus)
  - Recruiting (except enlistment bonus)
  - Training (General and NG/R specific APPNs)
- Cross Grade Level Allocation (CGLA) – This model takes costs for a given subgroup/grade level and allocates it against the current grade level and all subsequent grade levels inside that subgroup. This reflects the reality that subsequent grade levels benefit from that cost and thus share in its burden. Cost element categories now using this approach are:
  - Officer Acquisition: accession/affiliation bonus only
  - Recruiting: enlistment bonus only
  - Training (all except General and NG/R specific APPNs)
  - Selective Retention Bonus (SRB)
- These cost allocation models result in a more consistent and accurate approach to manpower costing moving forward.
- In addition to the above changes, AMCOS also added several new cost elements in the Ancillary summary showing the actual cost. Users with special cost allocation needs may take the actual cost and apply a different methodology as needed.
- AMCOS previously used a complex model to estimate and allocate the cost of bonuses and special pays. AMCOS now receives actual pay data from DMDC at the subgroup level, which greatly improves the accuracy of the model.
- AMCOS updated the cost model for Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH) & Basic Allowance for Subsistence (BAS) using a combination of actual DMDC Pay data, Financial Management Regulation (FMR) rules, and Army President’s Budget (BD) exhibits.
- AMCOS introduced three-year averaging for certain input data to establish a more consistent model year over year by reducing the effect of large swings in a single year’s data.
- The Military summaries were revised by adding a detailed summary and replacing the ALL COST with an ancillary summary.

WEBSITE CHANGES:

None

DATA UPDATES:

Full Cost of Manpower (FCoM) driven cost elements in the OMDW and Federal OM appropriations were updated based on the latest FCoM release. Note that OSD CAPE no longer includes the cost element "Treasury Contribution to Retirement" because it is a set contribution each year and is not paid per Servicemember. AMCOS followed suit and removed the cost from our model. Users will see a decrease in cost to some pay plans as a result of this change.

RELEASE DATE: APRIL 30, 2018

WEBSITE CHANGES:

The OSD Cost Element Structure, as defined by the OSD CAPE Cost-Estimating Guide dated March 2014, was added to the Weapon System Summary. This included breaking out the cost of training to provide further details and enable the necessary linkages to the OSD CAPE Cost Element structure

AMCOS Lite now allows for inflation adjustments which use the Joint Inflation Calculator (JIC) values.

In order to improve consistency across the site, several cost element names were adjusted to conform to a standard naming convention.

This is due to several factors: 1) AMCOS reports actual training costs from ATRM-159 and actual attendees from ATRRS which naturally causes the data to change year of over; 2) continuation rates, which are used in the AMCOS' amortization process, change each year which further contribute to data changes; 3) some minor process changes were necessary this year to accommodate the OSD CAPE Cost Elements shown now in the Weapon System Summary

DATABASE & WEBSITE CHANGE:

ADDITIONAL RELEASE DETAILS:

New J-book budget and DMDC non-inventory data, seven new acquisition career paths (Pay Plans), and updated documentation are addressed below:

1. The FY 2018 President Budget (PB) for Active, NG, & Reserves data extracted from the MPA, NGPA, RPA, OMA, OMNG, & OMAR Justification Books (J-Book) for inclusion into the AMCOS model.
- DMDC non-inventory data to include:
  - Continuation rates – This updated data set affects all amortized elements. In some cases, the updated continuation rates cause significant changes to amortized cost element values. This is due to AMCOS' Get Many Years calculation process that produces the denominator used in amortization. We have analyzed these changes to cost element values, and despite being large at times, the new values correctly reflect the latest in continuation rate trends across the Army.

- Non-Prior Service (NPS) / Prior Service (PS) members with/without obligations counts.
- ETS rates.
- Dependent data counts.
- Commissioning source counts updated.
- Seven Acquisition career path's (DB, DE, DJ, DK, NH, NJ, & NK) added using GFEBS cost data.
- In the previous releases, AMCOS's Project Manager Application would exclude salaries that exceeded the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) $208,000/year maximum for the Contractor Cost Estimate (CCE) pay plan. This release changed that to allow a positions salary up to the maximum salary of $208,000 to be included in a projects total. However, users should be aware of the note stating, "The highlighted field indicates a wage greater than $208,000 per year."
- To ensure currency, the Help & Support documentation was updated to accommodate the addition of the acquisition pay plans text revisions, picture or figure updates.
- Cost Element Dictionary table updated to add description, logic, calculation, and data sources for the new acquisition cost elements. Some updates were also made to the GP (Doctors/Dentist) cost element definitions.
- The "AMCOS Cost Model Documentation" was added to the Help & Support Tab, which addresses every AMCOS cost element's description, logic, calculation, and data source. It also provides discussion regarding the model's amortized cost elements.

RELEASE DATE: MAY 5, 2017

DATABASE & WEBSITE CHANGE:

INVENTORY:

FY 2016 End Strength (As of September 30, 2016). (New)

BUDGET DATA:

FY 2017 Budget Materials.

ADDITIONAL RELEASE DETAILS:

New Military and Civilian pay schedules, inventory, and new cost tables impact all three key AMCOS applications, AMCOS LITE, Project Manager, and Xwalk.

1. The AMCOS FY 17 inventory used is the FY 16 End-Strength (30 Sep 2016).
- Active & Drill Military Pay Schedule increases effective 1 Jan 2017.

- GS and GP Base Pay Schedule increases effective 8 Jan 2017.
- GS Special Pay Schedule increases effective Jan 2017.
- GS Locality rates increases effective Jan 2017.
- SES Inventory & Pay Data: DASA-CE WASS CY17 data (Jan 2017).
- GS Locality Rates by Zip Code Look-up Tool: Updated the zip codes to OPM locality areas FIPS codes.
- Updated all civilian (GS, SES, WG, WL, WS) cost factors based on available execution data.
- Updated all civilian (GS, GP, SES, WG, WL, WS) pay plans with 2017 FCoM values for OMA training and two Federal retired pay accrual costs.
- Updated eight Military FCoM DoD and Federal costs with 2017 values.
- Project Manager's Discount rates based on the 2017 rates cited in OMB Circular No. A-94 Memorandum located on the following website:
<https://www.whitehouse.gov/omb/information-for-agencies/memoranda>.
- New FY 18 PB inflation rates for Project Manager are based on the Joint Inflation Calculator (JIC) released in mid-April located under the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army-Cost and Economics (DASA-CE) website Tools & Portals link at <https://www.asafm.army.mil/offices/CE/>.
- Users may see substantial cost swings in their training costs from previous years due to the implementation of a major training methodology change. In previous years, a TRADOC school reporting training costs for a specific course also only reported a single grade referred to as the "Modal Grade" for that same course. Each year, the reported "Modal Grade" for the same course may stay the same, however, most of the time it changed grade levels or it even changed between personnel types (enlisted, officer, or W/O). These "Modal Grade" fluctuations had a significant impact on final training costs at the MOS level. With this release, the AMCOS Team merged the latest available TRADOC (Army Training Resource Management) ATRM-159 Training Report (FY 15 inflated to FY 17) cost data with Army Training Requirements and Resources System (ATRRS) student data for the same time period. The ATRRS's reported student mixture (e.g., E-1, O-3, W-2, etc.) and the student counts for each course were merged with the ATRM cost data. AIT, OSUT, and similar initial skill producing courses for officers and warrant officers to include UPT or other Flight training have had specific MOS/AOC identified and course costs will be applied to those courses targeted MOS/AOC, e.g., 11B, 13A, 152H. Course costs for career and professional courses not directly linked to a specialty are typically distributed to a specific CMF or as an Army-level cost when any soldier could attend the class. In the final analysis, a cost roll-up of all courses by Grade and MOS/AOC is performed; applied first at the MOS -level, then CMF-level, and lastly to the Army-level courses.
